

PLAN

Asset Management

Service Overview:

Everyone involved in electricity generation, transmission and distribution knows that effective management of assets is essential.

Well-constructed asset management strategies are critical in the asset intensive supply industry.

Whether developing asset health indicators applying BS ISO 55001 or PASS55 principles, condition monitoring or asset life cycle costing Edison is able to assist.

Industry Experience:

Edison's experienced professionals have been providing a valuable contribution to asset management strategies and plans including:

- Asset Life Cycle Analysis
- Asset Health Indicators
- Condition assessment and monitoring
- Spare and inventory strategy
- Maintenance and performance standards

Edison have been involved with the major asset information systems, whether it is GIS, Maximo or SAP we are well versed in the importance and integrity of asset data. Good asset decisions are easier to make with quality information.

Summary:

Whatever asset management and maturity level and strategy you have Edison is able to assist with current state analysis through the development of effective asset management plans.